

LAYC CAREER ACADEMY JOB POSTING: MATH INSTRUCTOR

The LAYC Career Academy is a public charter school in Washington DC that provides youth, ages 16-24 years, with college credits / AP-style classes; a rigorous and flexible GED, college preparatory curriculum, and career preparation in the healthcare and information technology fields.

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are seeking a dynamic, organized, and innovative instructor to teach math to 16- to 24-year-old students in the District of Columbia. The ideal candidate will have experience working with opportunity youth using the principles of positive youth development and restorative practices. The instructor is directly responsible for advancing innovative instruction, classroom management, planning and preparation, and overall student progress.

Duties and Responsibilities:

50% Instruction

- Provide innovative and Common Core Standard-based lessons
- Maintain a classroom environment based on principles of positive youth development and restorative practices.
- Analyze data and use data to strengthen student achievement.
- Provide lessons that differentiate instruction to all students and ensure compliance for ELL and SPED students
- Utilize technology on a regular and consistent basis
- Meet with students biweekly to create personalized plans, adjust goals and track achievements.

30% Planning and Preparation

- Submit lesson plans, class overviews, and syllabi for each session
- Work with the Director of Academics and Academic Support Coordinator to create personalized lesson plans based on test results report data
- Request materials in advance
- Attend professional developments as directed

20% Administrative Duties

- Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - Breakfast and Lunch duty
 - Meetings

- Record keeping
- Contacting students
- Other duties as assigned

Education and Experience Required

- Bachelor's Degree
- Two years of teaching experience
- Experience working with older youth

Title: Math Instructor

Department: Academics

Employment Type: Full-Time

Location: Washington, DC

FLSA Exemption Status: Exempt

How to apply: Please send a cover letter and resume to hr@laycca.org

